A screenshot of the Adobe Flash Player download page. The page is divided into three main sections. The left section, titled "Adobe Flash Player", features a grid of colorful thumbnails and the Adobe logo. Below the thumbnails, there are two dropdown menus: "Step 1" with "Windows 10/Windows 8" selected, and "Step 2" with "FP 32 for Opera and Chromium - PPAPI" selected. Below these is a "System requirements" link and a note about archived versions. The middle section, titled "Optional offers", contains two checkboxes for McAfee products: "McAfee Security Scan Plus" and "McAfee Safe Connect", each with a "Learn more" link. The McAfee logo is positioned below these offers. The right section, titled "Terms & conditions:", contains a paragraph of text and a yellow "Download now" button. Below the button, it says "Total size: 33.2 MB". Two blue arrows are overlaid on the image: one points from the "Optional offers" section to the "Step 2" dropdown menu, and the other points from the "Terms & conditions:" section to the "Download now" button.
